

BIOGRAPHY

While attending Fordham University School of Law, Mollie concentrated on public service, where she was awarded the Archibald R. Murray Public Service Award for her devotion to pro bono legal work. As part of her public service, she defended victims of identity theft, fraud, and predatory credit schemes as a legal intern at Fordham's Consumer Litigation Legal Clinic and at New York Legal Assistance Group. Additionally, she advocated for survivors of domestic abuse by volunteering for the Domestic Violence Action Center's WomensLaw.com hotline.

PRACTICE AREAS

Sex Assault and Harassment, Child Sex Abuse, Title IX Sex Discrimination and Crime Victims' Rights.

BAR ADMISSIONS

New York

Professional Associations & Memberships:

National Crime Victim Bar Association

EDUCATION

Fordham University School of Law, J.D. (2017)

University of Oklahoma, B.A., American Literature (2012), graduated cum laude.

HONORS & AWARDS

Archibald R. Murray Public Service Award

Honors Student Association