

BIOGRAPHY

Jay received his JD from the University of St. Thomas School of Law (2009), graduating magna cum laude and serving as a senior editor of the University of St. Thomas Law Journal. Jay earned his B.A. in Political Science from Gustavus Adolphus College (2003).

Jay represents creditors and unsecured creditors' committees seeking to maximize their recovery and vindicate their rights in bankruptcy proceedings. Representative matters include the prosecution of avoidance actions in large bankruptcies such as Sears Holding Corporation; Dean Foods Company; hhgregg, Inc.; Hancock Fabrics, Inc.; Samson Resources Corporation; and American Apparel, Inc.

Prior to joining ASK LLP, Jay represented debtors, creditors, and trustees in bankruptcy litigation, including avoidance actions, fraudulent transfer cases, and fee disputes. In addition, Jay litigated cases in Minnesota state and federal court.

Prior to entering private practice, Jay was a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Judge Louise Dovre Bjorkman of the Minnesota State Court of Appeals.

AFFILIATIONS

Jay is admitted to the bar of the State of Minnesota and the Federal District Courts for the District of Minnesota and the Southern District of Indiana.

Jay is a member of the Minnesota State Bar Association and the American Bankruptcy Institute.

PRACTICE AREAS

Bankruptcy, Creditor's Rights, Preference Litigation, Fraudulent Transfer Litigation and Appeals.

PUBLICATIONS:

ABI Journal, Jun 1, 2023

Navigating Crypto Issues Within Preference Litigation

Unsecured Trade Creditors' Rights Journal, Nov 12, 2021

A Bi-Annual Report on the Legal Developments Affecting Unsecured Trade Creditors in Bankruptcy